

Thomas Dolby
dolbyt@wittenberg.edu

123 Homestead Place
Pullman, WA 99163

Phone: (555) 222-2222
Cell: (555) 111-1111

QUALIFICATIONS

- Three years working in commercial and academic, biological research labs
- Proficiency with gel electrophoresis, media preparation and a variety of other lab techniques
- History of working half-time while attending classes full-time

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Biology, Wittenberg University
GPA: 3.65

Springfield, OH
May 20xx

Study Abroad at University of Lancaster

England
Spring 20xx

LABORATORY SKILLS

Radioimmunoassay, Light Microscopy, Agarose Gel Electrophoresis, Media Preparation, Animal Injections (chickens), IR and UV-vis Spectroscopy, GC-MS Lotus 1-2-3 Software

RESEARCH

Hypothyroidism in Male Chickens, Murray Hatchery

Wester City, IA
Summer 20xx

- Investigated the effects on body weight and bone growth of injections of thyroid hormone and drugs that inhibit natural thyroid hormone production
- Delivered hormone to 20 chickens daily for two weeks through IM injections
- Analyzed T1 levels of 80 blood samples through gas chromatography

EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant, Wittenberg University Biology Department

Springfield, OH
Aug. 20xx- May 20xx

- Assisted students with weekly lab projects and answered student questions in general biology course
- Setup laboratory equipment weekly for 10 students, including gel electrophoresis and light microscopy slides
- Arranged and led tutoring circles for students who scored low on exams

Moisture Analyst Intern, Quality Assurance Dept., ALPO Petfoods, Inc.

Allentown, PA
Summer 20xx

- Measured physical constants of newly produced dog food and adjusted content when necessary so variables remained within specified parameters
- Trained on and became proficient with gas chromatograph/mass selective detector

VOLUNTEER

Mercy Medical Center

Springfield, OH
Sept. 20xx – Dec.20xx

- Helped ease patients' stay in gastric ward through regular visitation
- Aided nurses in daily office and hospital tasks

HONORS

Treasurer, Mortar Board
Beta Beta Beta Biological Honorary Society

Sept.- May 20xx
20xx