

“First 15” Rule: Students must complete 15 credit hours in Level I before progressing to Level II

Level I

- ART 120 – History of Art II
- BIOL 125 – Basic Human Physiology
- BIOL 170 – Concepts of Biology
- COMM 190 – Public Speaking
- COMP 121 – Computing in the Arts & Sciences
- DATA 100 – Data Literacy
- ECON 190 – Principles of Economics
- ESCI 101 – Introduction to Environmental Science
- ENGL 101 – Expository Writing
- GEOL 110 – Introductory Geology
- HIST 105 – Premodern World History
- HIST 106 – The Modern World History
- HIST 110 – Ancient Mediterranean Worlds
- HIST 111 – Medieval Europe
- HIST 112 – Modern Europe
- HIST 121 – United States History I
- HIST 122 – United States History II
- HIST 127 – U.S. History Since 1945
- MATH 112 – Language of Mathematics
- MATH 120 – Elementary Functions
- MUSI 110 – Understanding Music
- PHIL 102 – Introduction to Philosophy
- PHIL 103 – Ethics & Identity
- PHIL 107 – Art of Living Ethically
- POLI 101 – American National Government
- POLI 103 – Intro to Comparative Politics
- PSYC 101 – Intro to Psychological Science
- SOCI 101 – Introduction to Sociology
- SOCI 110 – Cultural Anthropology
- THDN 120 – Art of the Theatre

(over)

Suggested Level I Pathways

16-Hour Pathway

Fall Semester

- ENGL 101 – Expository Writing
- SOCI 101 – Introduction to Sociology

Spring Semester

- HIST 121 – United States History I
- PSYC 101 – Intro to Psychological Science

32-Hour Pathway

Fall Semester

- ENGL 101 – Expository Writing
- SOCI 101 – Introduction to Sociology
- DATA 101 – Data Literacy
- ART 120 – History of Art II

Spring Semester

- POLI 101 – American National Government
- HIST 122 – United States History II
- BIOL 125 – Basic Human Physiology
- PHIL 107 – Art of Living Ethically