

ONE HUNDRED SEVENTY-THIRD BACCALAUREATE SERVICE

Lord God, You have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (Evangelical Lutheran Book of Worship, Morning Prayer)

Opening Prayer – written and offered by Christopher Mills '18

L: Jesus, thank you for bringing us all here together one last time before we start our journeys after Wittenberg. We lift up this time of celebration to you and pray for you to bless your children as we are looking ahead to the future that you have laid out before us. Help us look to you for guidance, and comfort us in our times of uncertainty as we lean on you. Thank you so much for our four years at Wittenberg and we pray that all of us are able to take this knowledge you have given us and share it with everyone we interact with. Continue to bless our time in the rest of this service as we gather to worship your holy name, Jesus. Amen

Opening Hymn #733

A Prayer for the Easter Season

L: Let us pray. O God, form the minds of your faithful people into a single will. Make us love what you command and desire what you promise, that, amid all the changes of this world, our hearts may be fixed where true joy is found, your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen (ELW prayer)

You know my sitting down and my rising up; You discern my thoughts from afar. You trace my journeys and my resting places And are acquainted with all my ways. Indeed there is not a word on my lips, But you, O Lord, know it altogether. You encompass me, behind and before, And lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is so high that I cannot attain to it. Where can I go then from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I climb up to heaven, you are there; If I make the grave my bed, you are there also. If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, Even there your hand will lead me and your right hand hold me fast... For you yourself created my inmost parts; You knit me together in my mother's womb. I will thank you because I am marvelously made; Your works are wonderful, and I know it well... How deep I find your thoughts, O God! How great is the sum of them! If I were to count them. They would be more in number than the sand; To count them all, my life span would need to be like yours. Your works, O Lord, are wonderful, and I know it well!

Offering

"Reflecting its Lutheran heritage, Wittenberg challenges students to become responsible global citizens, to discover their callings, and to lead personal, professional, and civic lives of creativity, service, compassion, and integrity." – Wittenberg Mission Statement

In the spirit of Wittenberg's Mission, today's offerings will address hunger locally and globally, and be divided evenly between Clark County Second Harvest Food Bank, introduced by Lizzie McNeill '18, and Lesotho Nutrition Initiative, introduced by Madeline O'Malley '18 and Anna Fort '18

Offering Prayer - written and offered by Samantha Strich '18

L: Loving God, we pray for the people of Lesotho as they continue to build their strong community. We pray for those working with Lesotho Nutrition Initiative, that they have pure hearts, strength and the humility to serve with others in your image.

We pray that our neighbors in Springfield continue to prosper. We thank you for their generous and compassionate spirits. We thank you for giving us neighbors that inspire us to make a difference in our world and communities, such as the Second Harvest Food bank and its volunteers.

We pray that in our future journeys, we continue to imitate your love through service and kindness to all, and that we encourage others to do the same. Create in us the will to strive for equality for all and to leave no neighbor behind. God, we thank you for teaching us that love has no bounds and for giving us open hearts to love our neighbors, near and far. Amen.

Closing Prayer - written and offered by Isabella Herman '18

- L: God, we thank you for the opportunity to be gathered here today to treasure our last hours together as undergraduates here at Wittenberg. Throughout the past four years of change, the ups and the downs, you have guided us and set us upon the path we will begin in the coming days, weeks, and months. As a class, we have suffered loss, confronted and wrestled with big issues facing our generation, and forged lasting bonds both in the Springfield community and around the world. From this we have learned to put our trust not only in the loved ones who surround us but in you, O Lord, taking refuge in your strength and your love so that nothing may frighten or worry us. Because of your help, our endeavors have proved fruitful and our light is shining brighter than ever. As we leave this service, this campus, and this chapter of our lives, give us guidance and wisdom and help us to continue to embody your mercy and your grace. In your name we pray, Amen.
- P: For this day, and all our days, we thank you, God in heaven, and we thank you for the Holy Spirit to guide us, and for your Son, Jesus, who taught us to pray:
- All: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
  Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
  And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
  For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Following the service - President's Reception for Graduates and Families

This marks the final presidential reception for the class of 2018. It will be held at the President's residence, the Benjamin Prince House, down the hill from the chapel. Please join President Mike Frandsen and Sharon Frandsen at the reception following the service today.

A warm welcome to all to Weaver Chapel this afternoon!

Guests may be interested to know the story behind the streamers from the cross. They have been used for many years by the Weaver Chapel student community during the Easter season to symbolize the joy and hope of the resurrection. We hope you will return to campus, and especially to Weaver Chapel, soon and often!

Participants in the Service

The Baccalaureate service is planned by members of the Senior Class with Matevia Endowed University Pastor Rachel Tune. A special thank you to all those who read lessons, offered prayers, presented music, or shared a message with us today, as indicated in the bulletin, as well as those seniors who helped to plan the service.

"Yesterday I aided in the survey of the college grounds. I walked so much that my weariness amounts to suffering. This is a lovely spot for the location of a literary institution. It requires some faith to believe that in after years it will be an academic grove, to which hundreds will resort to drink at the pure fountains of knowledge, and then go forth into the world to do good, to bless mankind. And yet I have faith to believe that this will all be realized. If my eyes shall not be permitted to behold these blessed results, yet when they shall be closed in death, others will see them, and rejoice and bless the Lord for what he has done, in rearing such an instrumentality of blessings."

> Ezra Keller, founder and first President of Wittenberg College, April 1845
