Learning Outcome 10: Students will analyze problems, issues, or representations using knowledge, theories and/or methods appropriate to the humanities.

Capability	1.Emerging	2. Developing	3. Proficient	4. Advanced
A. Students analyze	Analysis lists evidence	Analysis identifies and	Analysis identifies and	Analysis identifies, problems, issues, or	but it is not organized	organizes evidence but is	organizes relevant	organizes, and representations using	and/or not relevant.	less effective in revealing	evidence to reveal	synthesizes relevant evidence and methods	Patterns, differences or	patterns, differences or	important patterns,	evidence to reveal appropriate to the	similarities are obscured.	similarities.	differences or similarities.	insightful patterns, humanities.				differences or similarities.
B. Students develop an	The position, perspective,	The position, perspective,	The position, perspective,	The position, perspective, informed position,	or thesis is stated but is	or thesis acknowledges	or thesis takes into	or thesis is original or perspective, or thesis	simplistic, obvious, or	different sides or	account the complexities	imaginative, taking into with respect to	uninformed.	interpretations of a	of a problem, issue, or	account the complexities problems, issues, or		problem, issue, or	representation. It also	of a problem, issue or representations		representation.	includes an	representation. Others' acknowledgement of	interpretations or points others' interpretations or	of view are points of view.	acknowledged. Potential limits of the position are also described.

The LO10 Humanities rubric was adapted from the AAC&U "Critical Thinking" and "Inquiry and Analysis' Value Rubrics.