Principal Licensure Program
Beginning Fall 2016

Master of Arts in Education Program

Join the Leadership Focus cohort starting in Fall 2016 and complete courses that lead to your development as a teacher leader and take additional courses if you are interested in principal licensure. You will be actively involved in projects with your school, district, and community.

Reasonably priced at $350 per credit
Meets one night per week on Tuesdays for your convenience
Small class sizes

Application form available at http://www.wittenberg.edu/academics/master-education

Dr. Roberta Linder, Director of Graduate Studies  rlinder@wittenberg.edu  (937) 327-6342
Leadership Focus (degree only = 36 credits; degree + principal licensure = 42 credits)

The program features courses that lead to the development of teacher leaders and additional courses that prepare candidates for principal licensure. The courses will include a combination of face-to-face courses as well as others that will be blended with online components.

Core courses

Professional and Ethical Issues in Education (3 credits)

The Sociology of Educational Change and School Renewal (3 credits)

Approaches to Working with Diverse Communities (3 credits)

Research courses

Reading and Synthesizing Teacher Research (3 credits)

Planning and Implementing Teacher Research (3 credits)

Directed Research (3 credits)

Focused Inquiry courses (required for licensure)

Leadership for Student Learning and Development (3 credits)

Supervision and Instructional Leadership (3 credits)

Community Relations (3 credits)

School Leader Internship I (3 credits)

Professional Studies courses

Selection of courses for 6 credits

Courses required for principal licensure: School Finance, School Law, The Principalship, School Leader Internship II