Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Academic Major

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

- >> Teachers Prepared by Subject Area
- >> Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2018-19.

For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205(b)(1)(H))

What are CIP Codes?

No teachers prepared in academic year 2018-19

If your program has no teachers prepared, check the box above and leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55).

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2018-19. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205(b)(1)(H))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education—Chemistry" category.

What are CIP Codes?

Do participants earn a degree upon completion of the program?

Program Assurances

Respond to the following assurances. Note: Teacher preparation programs should be prepared to provide documentation and evidence, when requested, to support the following assurances. (§205(a)(1)(A)(iii); §206(b))

		UDES:

>> Program Assurances

Program Assurances
<ul> <li>1. Program preparation responds to the identified needs of the local educational agencies or States where the program completers are likely to teach based on past hiring and recruitment trends.</li> <li>Yes</li> <li>No</li> </ul>
Preparation is closely linked with the needs of schools and the instructional decisions new teachers face in the classroom.      Yes     No
<ul> <li>3. Prospective special education teachers are prepared in core academic subjects and to instruct in core academic subjects.</li> <li>Yes</li> <li>No</li> <li>Program does not prepare special education teachers</li> </ul>
Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students with disabilities.      Yes     No
5. Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to limited English proficient students.  • Yes  No
Prospective general education teachers are prepared to provide instruction to students from low-income families.      Yes     No
7. Prospective teachers are prepared to effectively teach in urban and rural schools, as applicable.  Yes

8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

To address these needs, Wittenberg employs the following strategies: 1) The Education Department meets quarterly with T.E.A.B. (Teacher Education Advisory Board), a group of local school district administrators, including superintendents and principals. Working with T.E.A.B. enables Wittenberg to understand local hiring and preparation trends. 2) All candidates who complete their preparation at Wittenberg must also complete Wittenberg's Liberal Arts Education core, which provides our candidates with a deep and broad content background. In order to address the needs of diverse students, all Wittenberg teacher candidate: a) complete a 12 hour reading core which provides our candidates with the foundational skills necessary to help all students learn, including limited English proficient students b) participate in a diversity of field and clinical experiences that provides experience in teaching urban, rural, low-income, and sub-urban populations.

Annual Goals: Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route teacher preparation program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students.

(§205(a)(1) (A)(i), §205(a)(1)(A)(ii), §206(a))

Please note that the goals you set last year are not pre-loaded into your report because the Department's changes to wording of the questions in this section make them incompatible for pre-loading from last year's data. Next year, your goals will be pre-loaded into your report based on the goals you enter this year.

In order to complete this section, you may find it helpful to review your goals in your 2019 report. You may download and review your 2019 report by following the following steps: 1) click the Home tab, 2) click "Academic Year 2018-19 Data" in the banner near the top of the page to expand the dropdown, and select "Academic Year 2017-18 Data," 3) Click Download Report.

Report Progress on Last Year's Goal (2018-19)

1. Did your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2018-19?

If no, leave remaining questions for 2018-19 blank (or clear responses already entered).

- Yes
- No
- 2. Describe your goal.

As indicated last year, our goal was to add 1 mathematics teacher for the 2018-19 school year.

- 3. Did your program meet the goal?
  - Yes
  - No
- 4. Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

5. Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

Over the past two years, the EPP has engaged in new enrollment growth initiatives within the department and at the university level. Included in these initiatives are direct contact with prospective teacher candidates in mathematics and science by the content experts on the faculty. The university has also instituted a new enrollment database system (Slate) that allows for precise queries to be run in the areas of mathematics, science and special education. Additionally, the EPP has added different programming during the university recruitment phase and around admission into the EPP. The EPP was awarded a $20,000 state-level grant in collaboration with a partner district to develop programming to attract underrepresented persons into the teaching profession. While candidates from underrepresented racial and ethnic groups will be recruited as part of this project—prospective teachers of mathematics and science will be given special attention. The EPP will also continue to seek increased funding for support of prospective mathematics and science teachers. Special Education continues to be one of the most popular licensure programs at the EPP. One reason for this popularity is that it is bundled with another licensure program (Early Childhood Education) and completers get two teaching licenses. The EPP will continue to offer this dual licensure program and promote it as distinct in the state of Ohio.

6. Provide any additional comments, exceptions and explanations below:

Review Current Year's Goal (2019-20)

7. Is your program preparing teachers in mathematics in 2019-20? If no, leave the next question blank.

8. Describe your goal.

As indicated last year, our goal was to add 3 mathematics teachers during the 2019-20 school year.

Set Next Year's Goal (2020-21)

9. Will your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2020-21? If no, leave the next question blank.

10. Describe your goal.

The Education Department at Wittenberg is committed to increasing the number of teachers prepared in high need areas, such as math, science, and special education. Content area specific faculty in the Education Department are active in meeting with prospective students in order to meet this goal.

Annual Goals: Science

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route teacher preparation program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students.

9. Will your program prepare teachers in science in 2020-21? If no, leave the next question blank.

10. Describe your goal.

The Education Department at Wittenberg is committed to increasing the number of teachers prepared in high need areas, such as math, science, and special education. Content area specific faculty in the Education Department are active in meeting with prospective students in order to meet this goal.

Annual Goals: Special Education

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route teacher preparation program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students.

(§205(a)(1) (A)(i), §205(a)(1)(A)(ii), §206(a))

Please note that the goals you set last year are not pre-loaded into your report because the Department's changes to wording of the questions in this section make them incompatible for pre-loading from last year's data. Next year, your goals will be pre-loaded into your report based on the goals you enter this year.

In order to complete this section, you may find it helpful to review your goals in your 2019 report. 1. Did your program prepare teachers in special education in 2018-19?

If no, leave remaining questions for 2018-19 blank (or clear responses already entered).

- Yes
- No
- 2. Describe your goal.

Our goal was to add 13 I.S. teachers for the 2018-19 school year.

- 3. Did your program meet the goal?
  - Yes
  - No
- 4. Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

5. Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:
Wittenberg graduated 6 I.S. teacher candidates during the 2018-19 school year. Wittenberg has received a large grant from the Ohio Dean's Compact that will allow for revisions to our special education program to make it a more wholly integrated program. This will help prepare better and more special education teachers.

Assessment Pass Rates

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. (§205(a)(1)(B))

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact Westat's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Use of Technology

1. Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205(a)(1)(F))

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- a. integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
  - Yes
    - No
- b. use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning

- d. use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning
  - Yes
  - No
- 2. Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Regarding the effective integration of technology for direct impact of instruction, candidates are encouraged, and in most cases required, to integrate technology such as presentation assistance, virtual grouping, and web-based assessment technology into their lessons and course presentations. Furthermore, lesson plans ask for students to specify the technology being used in the classroom. In methods courses, particularly math and science, students are required to develop a unit and must specifically address the use of technology by students in the unit. During methods course instruction, students develop a webpage that targets the development of a specific standard across grade levels. The webpage design and components included are structured so that students have the opportunity to demonstrate their expertise in the selection and use of technology that will enhance student learning.

Teacher Training

- 1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:
  - a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

All teacher candidates are required to successfully complete this entry-level course: EDUC-120—Introduction to Students with Special Needs. This course examines how schools and society respond to students who have special learning needs. The course focuses on disability as the context for examining student diversity in schools. The course provides an overview of legislative mandates relating to students with disabilities, teacher roles, educational programming options, and approaches for creating more inclusive school environments. Once candidates progress through our program, some of the last courses Education majors will take are some 300-level courses: EDUC 332--Assessment and Inclusion and EDUC 405—
Addressing Reading Difficulties. These courses include an examination of characteristics, needs, and educational programming for students with disabilities or developmental delays and those who are gifted in early, middle or secondary classes. The courses build on information presented in EDUC 120 and focuses on knowledge and skills for identifying and accommodating students with special needs in general education and inclusive settings. The courses examine characteristics of students with special needs, provides a rationale for needs-based decision making, and provides knowledge and skills concerning teacher roles on intervention assistance teams and multidisciplinary IEP planning teams, and in intervention-based evaluation procedures. Regarding our instructional need for Limited English Proficient: we have addressed this area of our program more directly and have included content and instruction specifically targeting this need in three of our literacy courses. These materials are available for use by our teacher candidates in diverse field experiences throughout their program.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

Participation as a member of an individualized education program team is required as part of the student teaching/clinical practice experience and all general education teachers are evaluated on their engagement in professional responsibilities. In addition, all special education candidates complete a semester long apprenticeship in the semester prior to student teaching. The apprenticeship provides candidates to learn about and participate in all aspects of special education prior to student teaching.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

While Wittenberg does not offer an E.L.L. program, we recognize that all teachers will, at some point, work with students in this category. To prepare them, all candidates complete the 12 hour reading core prepares our candidates to meet the needs of students who are limited English proficient.

2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?

Yes

No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

In an effort to provide comprehensive training in special education, Wittenberg implemented a semester long apprenticeship course (EDUC 482) that si required for all I.S. candidates. During this course, teacher candidates will shadow and receive direct mentoring from a practicing Intervention

Specialist regarding the continuum of professional and instructional expectations of special educators. In addition, the teacher candidates will meet for instruction & reflection in individual and small group sessions with the university instructor and mentors. The course requires 50 hours of field experience.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

Participation as a member of an individualized education program team is required as part of the student teaching/clinical practice experience and all general education teachers are evaluated on their engagement in professional responsibilities.
