Wittenberg University English Department Minors

English Minor – 20 Semester Hours

Of the 20 required semester hours in English, no more than two can be non-literature based

- English 270A: Literary Form & Interpretation
- English 280A: British Literary Genealogies
- English 290A: American Literary Genealogies
- Eight credit hours at the 300-level

Creative Writing Minor – 21 Semester Hours

- English 240: Beginning Creative Writing
- English 406: Capstone in Creative Writing (1 semester hour)

Sixteen semester hours from the following:

- English 340: Topics in Advanced Fiction
- English 341: Topics in Advanced Poetry
- English 342: Topics in Advanced Creative Non-Fiction
- English 343: Topics in Advanced Screenwriting
- English 344: Summer Screenwriting Institute
- Theater/Dance 240: Playwriting

All of the above sixteen semester hours cannot be in the same genre of creative writing; students must take four semester hours each in at least two different genres.

Journalism Minor – 20 Semester Hours

- English 241: Beginning Journalism
- Communication 290S: Media Literacy
- English 320: Advanced News Writing OR English 321: Advanced Feature Writing

Eight semester hours from the following:

- Art 145A: Introduction to Computer Imaging
- Art 241A: Introduction to Photography
- Art 280A: Digital Photography
- Communication 351: Media Law
- Communication 491: Internship (must be approved for minor)
- English 244: Opinion Journalism
- English 320 or 321 (whichever is not taken for the core requirement above)
- English 492: Internship (must be approved for minor)

Senior minors will also submit a portfolio of their journalistic work with a brief reflective essay.

Note: The creative writing minor and the journalism minor can both be taken in combination with an English major with two courses overlapping; the journalism minor could also potentially overlap two courses with a communication major.