Resource Sheet

If the student needs assistance with academic skills, the following might be helpful:

Website with exercises and recommendations on time management, test anxiety, etc.:

http://www5.wittenberg.edu/administration/provost/advising/academicsuccess.html

For additional help, you can contact Mary Jo Zembar, Faculty Advising Coordinator (mzembar@wittenberg.edu or 327-7482).

For assistance with issues involving learning disabilities, contact Van Rutherford (vrutherford@wittenberg.edu or 327-7924).

If the student is an athlete, additional support can be provided by:

Alison Teopas, Asst. Dir. GAAME Plan for Life, (ateopas@wittenberg.edu or 327-6443)

Kelly Mahlum, athletic liaison, (kmahlum@wittenberg.edu or 327-7074)

Sarah Jurewicz, Women’s Basketball coach, (sjurewicz@wittenberg.edu or 327 - 6457

If the student is struggling with personal issues:

Linda Lauffenburger, Director of Counseling Service (llauffenburger@wittenberg.edu or 327-7811).

University pastors Rachel or Andy Tune (rtune or atune@wittenberg.edu or 327-7411).

Bob White, with Peer Helpers, (rwhite@wittenberg.edu or 327-7494).

If the student if struggling with institutional issues (residence life):

Dawn White, Senior Assoc. Dean of Students (dwhite@wittenberg.edu or 327-7808).

If the student needs to get involved:

Jon Duraj, Director of Student Activities (jduraj@wittenberg.edu or 327-7814)

Dana Carnes, Area Coordinator, Emerging Leaders Program (dcarnes@wittenberg.edu or 327-7572)

If you feel the need to alert others to a student’s needs, don’t hesitate to use our Early Alert system. This is a university-wide system that will allow the student’s name to become familiar to the office of Academic Services, Student Development, and Health Services. You can access it by logging on to myWitt and choosing Early Alert.

Student scholarship opportunities (e.g. Fulbright, Truman, etc. can be found with the help of Van Rutherford (vrutherford@wittenberg.edu)).