To be eligible to complete an honors thesis (either departmental and/or university), you must have a 3.50 cumulative GPA at the time of registration. To earn university honors, you must have a 3.50 cumulative GPA, have successfully completed two honors seminars, be a member of the University Honors Program, and successfully defend your Honors Thesis 499.

NOTE: A total of 18 semester hours of credit through a combination of internships, independent study and/or senior thesis is permitted. A maximum of 10 hours of internship credit is possible.

Short Description of Project or Problem to be studied:

499 Honors Thesis must be taken for a letter grade.

Student’s Signature

Date

THESIS COMMITTEE APPROVALS (you must have two faculty readers in your department and one from outside your department)

Faculty Director of Thesis

(Please Print name above)

Signature

Date

Second Reader (in department)

(Please Print name above)

Signature

Date

Third Reader (outside department)

(Please Print name above)

Signature

Date

Department Chair Approval

Date

FINAL APPROVAL

Director of University Honors Program

Date

Once Approved, This Form Will Serve As Registration For The Honors Thesis.