Personal Statement: If you were on academic probation when you left Wittenberg, or if you were suspended for academic or social reasons, please write a statement for the Admissions Committee stating why, if you were allowed to resume your studies, you think you will establish a more satisfactory record. Please be aware that once a student is suspended from Wittenberg, there is no guarantee of readmission. After being reinstated by the Board of Academic Standards, the readmission process is a competitive one. The personal statement will weigh heavily in the decision of the committee and should be written with care. Please use an additional sheet on which to write.

Have you been enrolled at any other colleges or universities since leaving Wittenberg? _____ If so, where? _____

Are you in good academic and social standing there? _____
(Note: Complete official transcripts must be sent from the Registrar of all colleges attended whether or not credit is requested.)

If you have not been enrolled at another college or university, please give us a complete account of what you have been doing since you left Wittenberg. (Use the back of this application.)
